MEMORANDUM

TO: AAA Directors NOTICE #: 071713-1-I-SWCBS

FROM: Charles T. Corley
Secretary

DATE: July 17, 2013

SUBJECT: Notice of Instruction: Release of the New DOEA 701B
Comprehensive Assessment Form

The purpose of this Notice is to transmit the new DOEA 701B Comprehensive Assessment Form and sub-assessment forms. All aging network staff responsible for conducting 701B assessments, including completion of sub-assessment forms 701A, 701C, and 701S must use the new forms beginning July 16, 2013.

The forms are defined as follows:

- The 701D Assessment Instructions provide guidance for completion of the DOEA 701B Comprehensive Assessment.
- The 701S Screening Form serves as a screening and enrollment management tool. It will be administered over the telephone for the initial screening of applicants for long-term care programs. It will also be used as an enrollment management tool to re-screen individuals on the Assessed Priority Consumer List (APCL).
- The 701A Condensed Assessment Form serves as a shortened assessment instrument based upon the 701B Comprehensive Assessment Instrument. It will be administered face-to-face for non-case managed clients in General Revenue Local Services Programs and Federal OAA Programs.
- The 701B Comprehensive Assessment Form serves as a broad-based assessment. It will be administered face-to-face for all case-managed clients regardless of the program in which they are enrolled.
- The 701C Congregate Meals Assessment Form serves as a shortened assessment instrument. It will be used to assess individuals for congregate meals and nutrition counseling services in the OAA Title III-C1 Program.
